all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise.'—Chrysanthemum, 'The November-December number of the China Review contains loss variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The Now Testament in Chinose" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen are continued, and a goodly instalment of Continental Languages spoken. these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr F. H. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number.'—H.K. Daily Press,

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature. antiquities, and social developments; to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable: and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-statesman of the eleventh century, Sn Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowrs, is not only historically valuable, but it also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that may receive the support necessary to beure its continuance. WASHING BOOKS. (In English and Chinese.) TYTASHERMAN'S BOOKS, for the use of Ladies and Gentlemen, can now

Why they were urging the Government to help them was that 'the project secured a line to Hongkong entirely on British soil. Many would remember that when the French War was going on with the Chinese the Government had almost decided to lay a cable to Borneo to avoid going to Saigon, as they had to do now was obtained from the street mains, the to get to Hongkong. UNITED SERVICES V. STRAITS TEAM.

This match was commenced on the Cricket Ground to-day. The weather was quite a contrast to that of Friday and Saturday last week, being very gloomy There was a slight drizzle in the forencon, not sufficient to stop play but enough to players. It was intended to play twelve a-side, but other arrangements had to be made afterwards. Captain Davidson, who was to play for the Services, having been incapacitated by getting a nasty knock over the eye from an unexpected ball during practice, just before the match began, the team was reduced to eleven, and as one of the Straits Team did not turn up, it was decided to play eleven a-side. The Services, having won the toss, elected to bat first, and on the whole they made rather a poor show of it, their total being only 72, of which E. M. Blair contributed 35. The Straits Team, however, did not reach that figure, being disposed of for 56. The Services went in again, and when play was stopped at five o'clock 67 had been put together. tsubo. The plans for the Nara Museum Fox took five of the Services' wickets in the first innings for twenty runs, and in the Straits Team's innings Walter had six wickets for thirty-one runs, and Blair three for thirteen.

Campbell and Champain went in to begin for the Services, Birch and Fox bowling. In the first over Campbell hit Birch for a three and a double, Cham ain getting a single. Fox's first over was a maiden, and Birch followed with another. After one Shantung, but it is probable that the more maiden over by Fox, a few runs were made. Campbell being the largest contributor. He was caught easily at point, however, by Stewart, off Birch (15-1-11.) Blair then joined Champain and Hornby took over the ball from Fox. Only a run or two had been added when Champain repeated Campbell's performance by playing a ball into Stewart's hands (8-2-4.) Hutchison and Blair then became partners. The R. E. man began scoring by hitting Birch away to the Murray Barracks compound for five, following this up by driving course, whether they would get the subsidy | Hornby's second ball for four. Dr Fox after a few overs replaced Hornby at the North Barracks end. After a few runs had been put on. Hutchison was run out (40-3-5.) Eames, who then joined Blair, began scoring by hitting Fox into the Pavilion for three, and runs began to come very rapidly for some time, till Eames was bowled by Fox (52-4-6.) Runs continued to come rapidly until thirty was reached, when Champain was smartly caught by Hill Smith in a fine hit to the upper end of the ground. (33-2-18.) Hutchison, who then joined Blair, after adding two to the total succumbed to the first bail from Latchford, who had replaced Birch. (40-3-2.) Eames, the next man, began to rattle up the score a little, but his partner, Blair, after an exhibition of very good cricket, skied a ball which dropped into Hil Smith's hands (46-4-13). Major Miles then became Eames' partner, but he succumbed to the first ball from Fox, without scoring, just after Lames had hit the same bowler into the pavilion for three. General Edwards took the Major's place and began to score by hitting Birch (who had relieved Latchford) for a comple, after which his partner, Eames, was caught by Higginbothan off Fox. (54-6-8.) Lee was smartly stumped by Talbot before he could add anything to the score. General Edwards was then joined by Garde, but was soon after caught by Hornby off Fox (61-8-5.) Walter then went in and Hornby took over the ball from Birch. Walter and Garde were still batting when play was stopped for the day, the last contribution to the score, which stood at 67, being four for a fine hit by Garde.
